

Annual Index – 2004

As a service to the readership, Police Labor Monthly has indexed certain sections that appeared in the newsletter during 2004. All of the material is noted by month and page number of appearance. Thus, a reference to “Callanan v. McCall 5:10” means the case is found in the May issue beginning on page ten. Litigation material is indexed by both case name and subject. Back issues of Police Labor Monthly may also be researched at www.justex.com/PLM.html index utilizing the subscriber user name and password. Keyword searches may be conducted by this method.

Searching the PLM Archives

As you use this annual index, please remember that Police Labor Monthly has an improved search engine in our on-line newsletter archives. This search engine employs several features that give you faster and more comprehensive results. A keyword inquiry will produce all issues from 1996 forward in which the requested word or phrase appears in any section of the newsletter. After clicking on the selected issue, use the "find" command in your web browser to locate the specific article containing the inquiry. You will be taken to the exact point in the issue where the word or phrase is located. More recent newsletters are posted in the Adobe Acrobat format (pdf), which means that the archive version is identical in layout to the print version subscribers receive.

We invite you to visit the PLM archives website and search the archives for yourself. You can link directly to the archives by going to <http://www.justex.com/PLM/>. Remember that your password is found in the latest newsletter you received.

If you have difficulty accessing the archives, please feel free to contact Justex representative Janice Jordan at jjordan@justex.com or 1-800-842-5203.
